STATE FORESTRY DIVISION SEEKING NOMINEES FOR CITIZEN COUNCIL

The Utah Department of Natural Resources is seeking nominees to the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands Advisory Council. The Council is composed of 11 members who study natural resource issues involving forestry and state lands and recommend courses of action. Members represent various interests ranging from industry to sporting and environmental concerns.

“Advisory Council members provide valuable insight in formulating policy and advising the division on actions we might take,” said State Forester Art DuFault. “We value that input and I encourage anyone interested in natural resource issues to make application.”

Advisory Council members are appointed by the governor for two year terms and meet quarterly. Interested individuals wishing additional information may contact Jim Springer at the Utah Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands, 801-538-5324. Application may also be made by sending a current resume or biographical sketch to, Utah Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands, Attention Jim Springer, 1594 West North Temple, Suite 3520, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114-5801.
